Sterling Madding Pursues Gang of Thieves and Is Roughly Treated.

Sterling Madding, a young man em-doyed by Given Bros, is at the heme of Mrs. George W. Cole, black 23, Rose freet, Lincoln Park, suffering from dows administered by a party of Mexi-ans whom he was following in an ef-cit to recover some stolen goods, and posse of police is searching the coun-ry in that vicinity to locate his assail-nts.

The chase started late Tuesday morning, when Madding, searching for the men who stole a case of shoes from in front of a store at 135 Ovebland street, tan across the Mexicans heading eastward. He followed on his wheel. Reaching the Brewery Garden, near the El Pano browers, he telephoned to the police that he was on the trail of the men. About 12:45 p. m. city failer A. G. Duchene received a telephone call, apparently from one of the Mexicans. The man spoke in Spanish and informed the officer that a boy was following him and that if the police did not ston him he would kill the boy. About 1:30 another telephone call eame into police headquarters. It was Madding. He stated that he had been knocked down by the men he was pursuing and bound to his bicycle. He said there were two wagons each loaded with goods.

REWARD IN DINSMORE CASE AWARDED TO CLOVIS WOMAN

AWARDED TO CLOVIS WOMAN Artesia, N. M., Peb 22.—When judge G. A. Richardson, of Roswell, awarded the 10se reward for the location of Charles A. Binamore, to Mrs. John F. Taylor, of Clovis, the last chapter in the Dinamore disappearance case was considered closed.

Dinamore disappeared while making a trip in his automobile, presumably on an oil inspection trip for a company he represented. He was secretary of the chamber of commerce here and was editor of "the Mining Journal," which was formerly published in El Pase by Mr. Dinamore before he came to Artesia.

Was formerly published in El Pase by Mr. Dinsmore before he came to Artesia, Mrs. Dinsmore placed $100 yeward in a lecal bank to be awarded to the first person giving information about her husband's whereabouts. This was claimed by Mrs. Taylor after Mrs. Dinsmore had gone to El Paso.

Mrs. Taylor telephoned that Dinsmore was in Keene, Texas, where he had joined a woman and children, who Mrs. Taylor, who was visiting her mother in Keene at the time, stated was Dinsmore's wife here tried to stop the payment of the reward but it had been claimed by Mrs. Taylor. Sheriff Young, of Chaves county, also sued for the reward but it was finally awarded to Mrs. Taylor.

ALLIED FLEET FIRES 2000 SHELLS INTO DARDANELLES

Paris, France, Feb. 12.—The Balkan News agency has received a dispatch from Athens, Greece, dated Monday, rebruinty 22, saying that the allied fleet, in hombarding the Bardanelles, threw 2000 heavy projecties into the Turkish forts Sunday. The Ottoman batteries replied feebly without hitting any of the allied warships. The allies continued their five Monday but with diminished intensity.
